DEPUTIES' MEETING

Wednesday, 1 July 1953

PRESENT: Messrs. Dulles, Amory, Kirkpatrick, Helms, Colonel White and

[redacted]

25X1

Mr. Dulles:

a. Remarked that he had noted the [redacted] view of the overseas Chinese situation and asked Mr. Helms to look into this matter to determine if we had given sufficient thought to it.

25X1

b. Announced he was appearing before the Senate Appropriations Sub-Committee on Friday, 3 July, and that only Senators McCarran and Ferguson would be present. Mr. Kirkpatrick is preparing background information for this.

c. Brought up the question of a [redacted]. It was decided that this would be advantageous but must be handled very carefully.

25X1

[redacted]

25X1

e. Noted that [redacted] proposed to tour the European Stations prior to returning to Headquarters for reassignment. The Director stated it was all right to visit stations with which [redacted] would do business on his job here at Headquarters, but that he (DCI) did not approve of "junkets".

25X1

f. Mentioned that Mr. [redacted] had come in to see him. Mr. Helms noted that [redacted] had expressed certain views regarding political warfare. Mr. Dulles asked that these be made into a short memorandum.

25X1

g. Discussed the future assignment of Mr. [redacted] and it was decided that he would spend approximately two months as liaison with [redacted]. After that, assignment with DD/I might be considered.

25X1

3.7.8.53

h. Discussed the exchange of information with [redacted] and requested Mr. Amory to get a file together on this subject.

25X1

Mr. Amory:

b. Discussed the funding mechanism, recommending certain changes, and undertook to prepare revisions to the Regulations for the Director's approval.

Mr. Helms:

a. Mentioned the possibility of CIA being called upon to provide another speaker for the Army War College. Mr. Dulles stated that if requested directly we would do so, but he felt we were providing our share of speakers at present.

[REDACTED]

25X1

c. Announced that [REDACTED] is coming aboard in about two weeks in the Requirements Staff, FI.
